- a. Motion was made by Paul Parker, seconded by Pam Torres.

7. County Counsel Report:

- a. Responded to last month's question regard whether schools have any statutory requirement to report incidents of violence to school districts. She noted, County Counsel did not find any statutory mandate or case law. She noted schools may have internal policies that would need to be explored.
b. It was noted County Counsel will explore and confirm, The Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Commission (JDPC), use of subpoena power.

8A. Probation Report: Special Services Division - Division Director, Shannon Crosby

- a. Youth Report:
i. The number of youth currently in placement is thirty (30), four (4) in emergency placement, one (1) in FFA, and twenty-five (25) in STRTP placement. Twenty-five (25) youth have dual status with DPSS placement, and thirty-six (36) extended foster care youth.
ii. Youth placed in STRTPs are not in the county at this time. Those youth have been placed outside of the county in Chino Hills, Los Angeles, San Marcos, Fresno, Redlands, Oakland, Apple Valley etc., youth placed outside of the county maybe due to the Riverside county facilities being full, not accepting youth, or if they do not have the services to meet treatment needs.
iii. Youth placed in county and out of county are visited by county representative every month as mandated. Facilities are audited by Community Care Licensing (CCL) and have been and have received their STRTP by CCL. Additionally, Probation has an in-house placement monitor that conducts annual audits to ensure that they're keeping up with compliance. It was noted that Boys Republic (Chino Hills, CA), has transitioned their GH Program to a Short-Term Residential Therapeutic Program (STRTP).

Probation may file petition to transfer 19+ youth to an adult facility, and the seasonal aspects and various reasons for increased custody intakes in detention.

9. DPSS Report: Jennifer Kopfler, Deputy Director

- a. DPSS Report Overview: Highlights and Breakdown of May 2023 (Report Provided in Packet).
 - i. Welcome Center - Placement continues to be the biggest struggle for our complex needs youth. The Welcome Center has a capacity of twelve (12) at the current welcome center, e.g., Beaumont.
 - ii. DPSS is in the process of securing a property large enough to meet capacity and will be built at different levels of care.
 - iii. DPSS will partner with probation, public health, behavioral health, and community-based organizations, that will enable them to build the capacity to care for youth that are waiting for placement. The new property will have thirty-five (35) to forty (40) beds besides the current, twelve (12) bed capacity.

- iv. Current placement average is about thirty (30), and thirty-six (36) and most are in hotel rooms spread throughout the county, and in each of the hotels they have to be separated because of their behavioral mental health needs, and the supervision ratio is usually two (2) to one (1) and that staffing is separate from their normal staffing.
 - b. Staffing:
 - i. For staffing and child welfare and investigations, DPSS has brought on one-hundred (100) staff to assist with youth awaiting placement, including forty-one (41) Temporary Assignment Program (TAP) employees. DPSS will bring on an additional thirty-four (34) TAP, and will hire an additional 25 permanent staff.
 - ii. DPSS will continue to partner with the other divisions to rotate throughout the county to assist at hotel sites.
 - c. Partnership:
 - i. Partnered with San Bernardino County, there was a state grant that we were awarded for $10,000,000.00. Partnership will enable them to build a model, an ideal model of the continuum of care.
 - ii. DPSS hosted a luncheon with care providers, encouraging them to consider becoming an intensive service foster care home.
 - iii. Further discussed: Meetings with the state weekly, TA calls technical assistance calls with the state, and DPSS meetings held internally with the treatment staff.
 - d. DPSS Report Overview:
 - i. Response types. It was noted, Evaluate Outs are instantly for referred to prevention services, so, they are receiving preventative services preventing the need for them to become investigations and have involvement with child welfare in the future.
 - ii. Briefly reviewed, Allegations Types by Client and by Regions. The breakdown of sexual abuse investigations is largely handled by the command post operations for immediate response. DPSS has two (2) investigators stationed at the RSO office, and they work in tandem. DPSS is rolling out specialized abuse training for all staff.
- 10. Presentation: "Beyond the Walls" - Max Miner, CEO & Founder
- a. Highlights of "Beyond the Walls" Presentation:
 - i. Mr. Miner, provided an in-depth overview and background of Moving Mountains Unlimited. Moving Mountains Unlimited is a non-profit organization committed to transforming the lives of the youth in the juvenile justice system. Currently, Moving Mountains has implemented their program inside Indio juvenile hall.
